The great indoors... for the great outdoors

Bluestone Farm is a lovely old working farm, set in magnificent gardens on the outskirts of the quiet little village of South Creake in Norfolk.

Ideally situated for easy access to Sandringham, Fakenham, Holkham beach and the International Equestrian Centre at Burnham Market - our farm is naturally a very popular venue for touring horses and their owners/riders; both parties enjoying either the excellent stabling/paddock, good access and parking for lorries and trailers, DIY livery, or the luxury Bed and Breakfast accommodation.

This is a wonderful area for those interested in other outdoor pursuits offering excellent opportunities for Sporting Guns, Golfers, Walkers, Sailors, Bird Watchers and those just wishing to experience an 'Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty' rich in culture and history (Lord Nelson was born only three miles down the road).

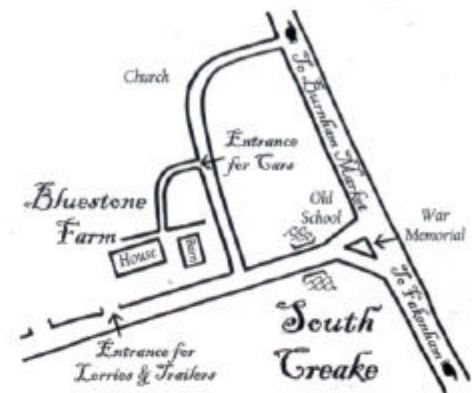

We have recently renovated three large bedrooms (two doubles and one twin) all with first class en-suite facilities. Each of our rooms is furnished with antiques and decorated in keeping with the age and character of the house. They all have wonderful views of the gardens, paddock and countryside. All rooms have colour TV and tea/coffee making facilities.

Traditional farmhouse breakfasts are served in the family dining room. We do not serve evening meals (with the exception of shooting parties - details on request) but are happy to recommend a number of very good local pubs or restaurants.

Bluestone Farm is surrounded by 12 miles of green country lanes and is midway between Burnham Market and Fakenham on the B1355.
